

Spending time with someone I really like

Tidying my room.

When an auntie or uncle asks me for a kiss.

When someone suggests doing something I don't want to do.

If someone hits me.

When someone tickles me.

If a stranger offered me a lift home in their car.

If someone touched my private parts.

If I had to walk home
on my own and its dark.

Having homework to do.

When we have my favourite food for tea.
