

3. Spirituality:

Some people say that your spirituality is about the human spirit or human soul.

Spirituality is about love and respect for all living things, it is how you connect with nature. For some people this means believing in a God and being part of a religion. How can we, as humans, love and respect our world and look after it?