

2.5.2 Gender: We are all one-of-a-kind

Fair or Unfair? Card game prop

Decide whether you think the situation that is described on the card is Fair, Unfair or Not Sure, then place the card in one of the circles below.

Fair

Unfair

Not sure

2.5.2 Gender: Situation cards

Cut out the cards and place in the circles on the other 2.5.2 sheet.

1. When the children queue for lunch its always girls first.

3. In the toy shop, there is a girls' section full of princesses and pink sparkly clothes and a boys' section full of action figures, skateboards and bikes.

2. The school uniform is the same for everybody.

4. Girls are told that people like their hair, or that they are wearing a nice dress. Boys get told they are good at things.

2.5.2 Gender: Situation cards

Cut out the cards and place in the circles on the other 2.5.2 sheet.

5. In the nursery, all the girls' coat pegs are pink and the boys' coat pegs are blue.

7. After school the boys' football team has a coach. The girls' football team doesn't.

6. At home, all the children are expected to do the same chores.

8. A new kid has arrived in school, someone said he's a boy but the new kid says their name is Ellie. Ellie doesn't answer questions like "are you a boy or a girl?" Some boys have started to tease Ellie.

2.5.2 Gender: Situation cards

Cut out the cards and place in the circles on the other 2.5.2 sheet.

9. In the classroom, when girls are chatting as they work, that's okay. When the boys chat, they are told to keep their voices down.

11. In the clothes store there isn't a girls' or boys' section anymore, just lots of clothes and children can pick.

10. The teacher gets everyone to sit boy/girl because she says the boys behave badly when they sit together.

12. The teacher says that all subjects can be done by all children equally well.

2.5.2 Gender: Situation cards

Cut out the cards and place in the circles on the other 2.5.2 sheet.

13. Every child in the class gets to do any activity they want – there's no such thing as boys' activities and girls' activities.

15. Every child plays well together, it doesn't matter what gender they are.

14. When the teacher asks for a helper, she usually picks a girl.

16. When the children were in the class together last year, one of their classmates was Leo. After the summer holidays, Leo has come back to the class and is changing the way they look. Now Leo wants to be called Leah. Everyone is happy that Leah is happier now.