

Making choices about sex

What kind of relationship do I want?

In pairs, use the interview cards below to have a discussion about relationships. Imagine you are answering these when you are a bit older. Imagine being in a relationship, what do you see in your head? What do you want or hope for?

Do you imagine going out with someone, living with someone, being married?

In your relationship, what will you and your partner do together?

How do you make each other feel?

What do they say to you? / What do you say to them?
