Zero Tolerance

Title of programme: Under Pressure

Contact person: Rachel Adamson

Contact details: rachel.adamson@zerotolerance.org.uk

About the programme:

The Under Pressure training course aims to increase awareness of the issue of abuse and sexual exploitation in young people's relationships, as well as equipping youth and community workers with skills and knowledge to prevent and address this problem in their practice.

Originally launched in 2011, the programme was consistently well evaluated and in order to meet demand for the course it has developed into a train the trainer model. We work alongside partner organisations YouthLink Scotland and The Centre for Youth and Criminal Justice (CYCJ).

Under Pressure is currently undergoing a review and update of materials. It will be relaunched and more details will be made available here:
